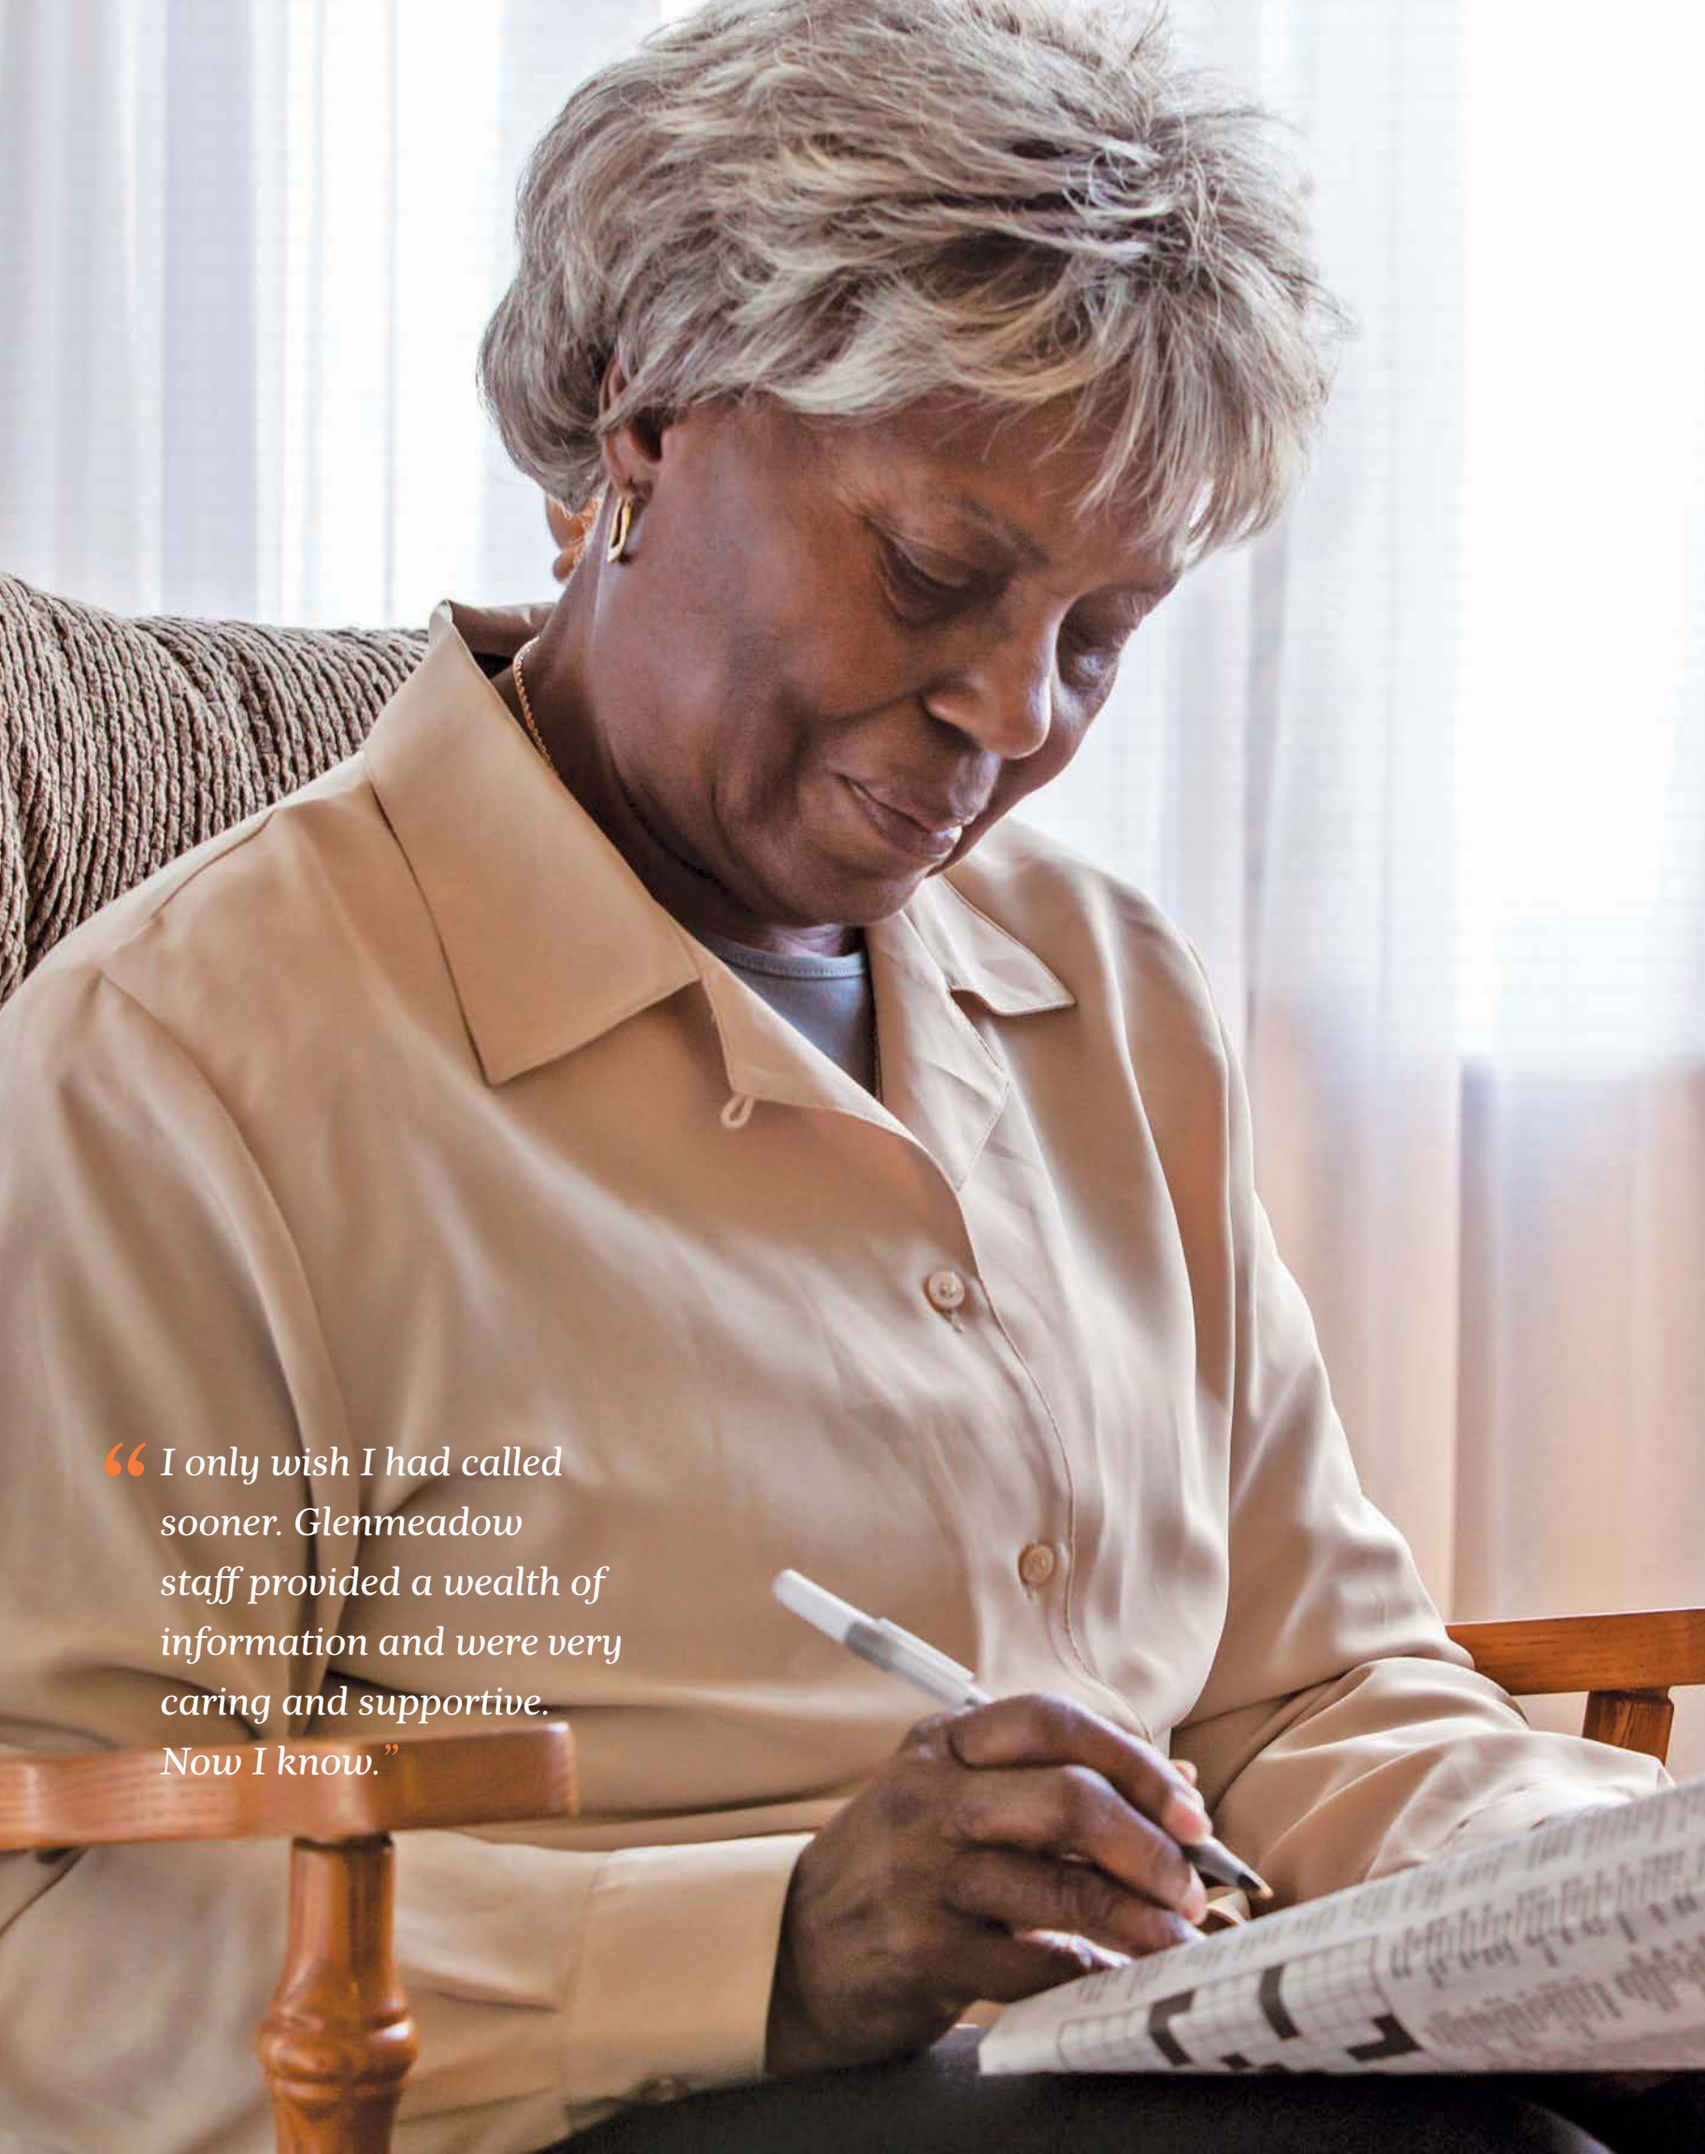
Glenmeadow

A nonprofit, caring since 1884

It's about you

And the life you want



“I only wish I had called sooner. Glenmeadow staff provided a wealth of information and were very caring and supportive. Now I know.”

We start with "Yes"

We don't just set the bar. We leap over it. Because we are all about backing up the "Yes" you heard from us. Personalized care and attention are our hallmark. We learn what's important to you. We know your needs and desires will be different from your neighbors'. We also know that what you care about most will shift with time.

We believe in adapting what we do to meet your changing needs.

In the place you call home

Our reputation for offering premier services extends to wherever you are. We serve the needs of older adults in Greater Springfield—whether they live on our Glenmeadow campus in Longmeadow, or in a house, apartment, or care facility throughout the region. We can give you a hand with your morning routine. Our handyman can knock off the items on your honey-do list. We can even change your cat's litter box.

We won't try to sell you on us. We'll have a conversation about how we can help.

We're about what you need

As a nonprofit, we exist to fulfill a mission of serving older adults and their families. Our work is centered around helping you live your best life. Our standards are high. Our minds and hearts are engaged. We treat you with dignity and respect. This is a promise we make to you and is part of an official pledge every Glenmeadow employee makes. We are kind to our colleagues. We work as a team. We empower each other.

We believe in making everyone feel welcome. We always have.

Philanthropic from the start

Glenmeadow was founded in 1884 by compassionate benefactors who wanted to help older adults live out their lives in community, with acceptance and consideration. We have continued to grow into this mission over time, working together to provide services and supports that are meaningful for you. Even when that means we need to invent them.

We believe in our long-held purpose. We like what we do, and we're honored to do it for you.

WE EVALUATE, ENHANCE, ENGAGE

We are committed to serving the needs of older adults in the Greater Springfield area through premier living options and quality home- and community-based services. Our staff members offer experience, innovation, and compassion. Our broad-scope programs offer everything from dementia support to day trips.

We strive to redefine the experience of aging. We remain in the lead as a services provider because, as we engage with older adults, we also continually evaluate and enhance our offerings.

Give us a try

Start by dipping your toe in our waters. Literally. By becoming a Lifestyle Pass member, you can use our swimming pool anytime. You can also dine with us, take our classes, and enjoy our entertainment. Don't worry about making a long-term commitment. Just give us a try. Call us. Let us know a little bit about you. We'll show you around and discuss how we can help.

Glenmeadow at Home

If the place you call home is a private house, apartment, or a care facility, our Glenmeadow at Home program can help. We know your schedule might change week to week. Our services range from one-time, fix-it projects to ongoing personal care. We can do the laundry, pay bills, take you to your doctor, or fix a leaky faucet.

Glenmeadow Living

At Glenmeadow, we're about ensuring your independence and personal choice.

When you live here, you can do a little—or a lot. A variety of amenities and services are available, and you can select from a range of floor plans. We offer independent and assisted living options, and extra support is available in any apartment.
